THANKS, Roseann
Soon it will be your turn to have fun while I work!

Jenny and Alex:
The encouragement was great.
Now we can all celebrate.

In memory of my parents,
Frances LaJohn Pline
Dominick A. Pline who showed me the meaning of the proverb:

I figli dei gatti prendono i topi.

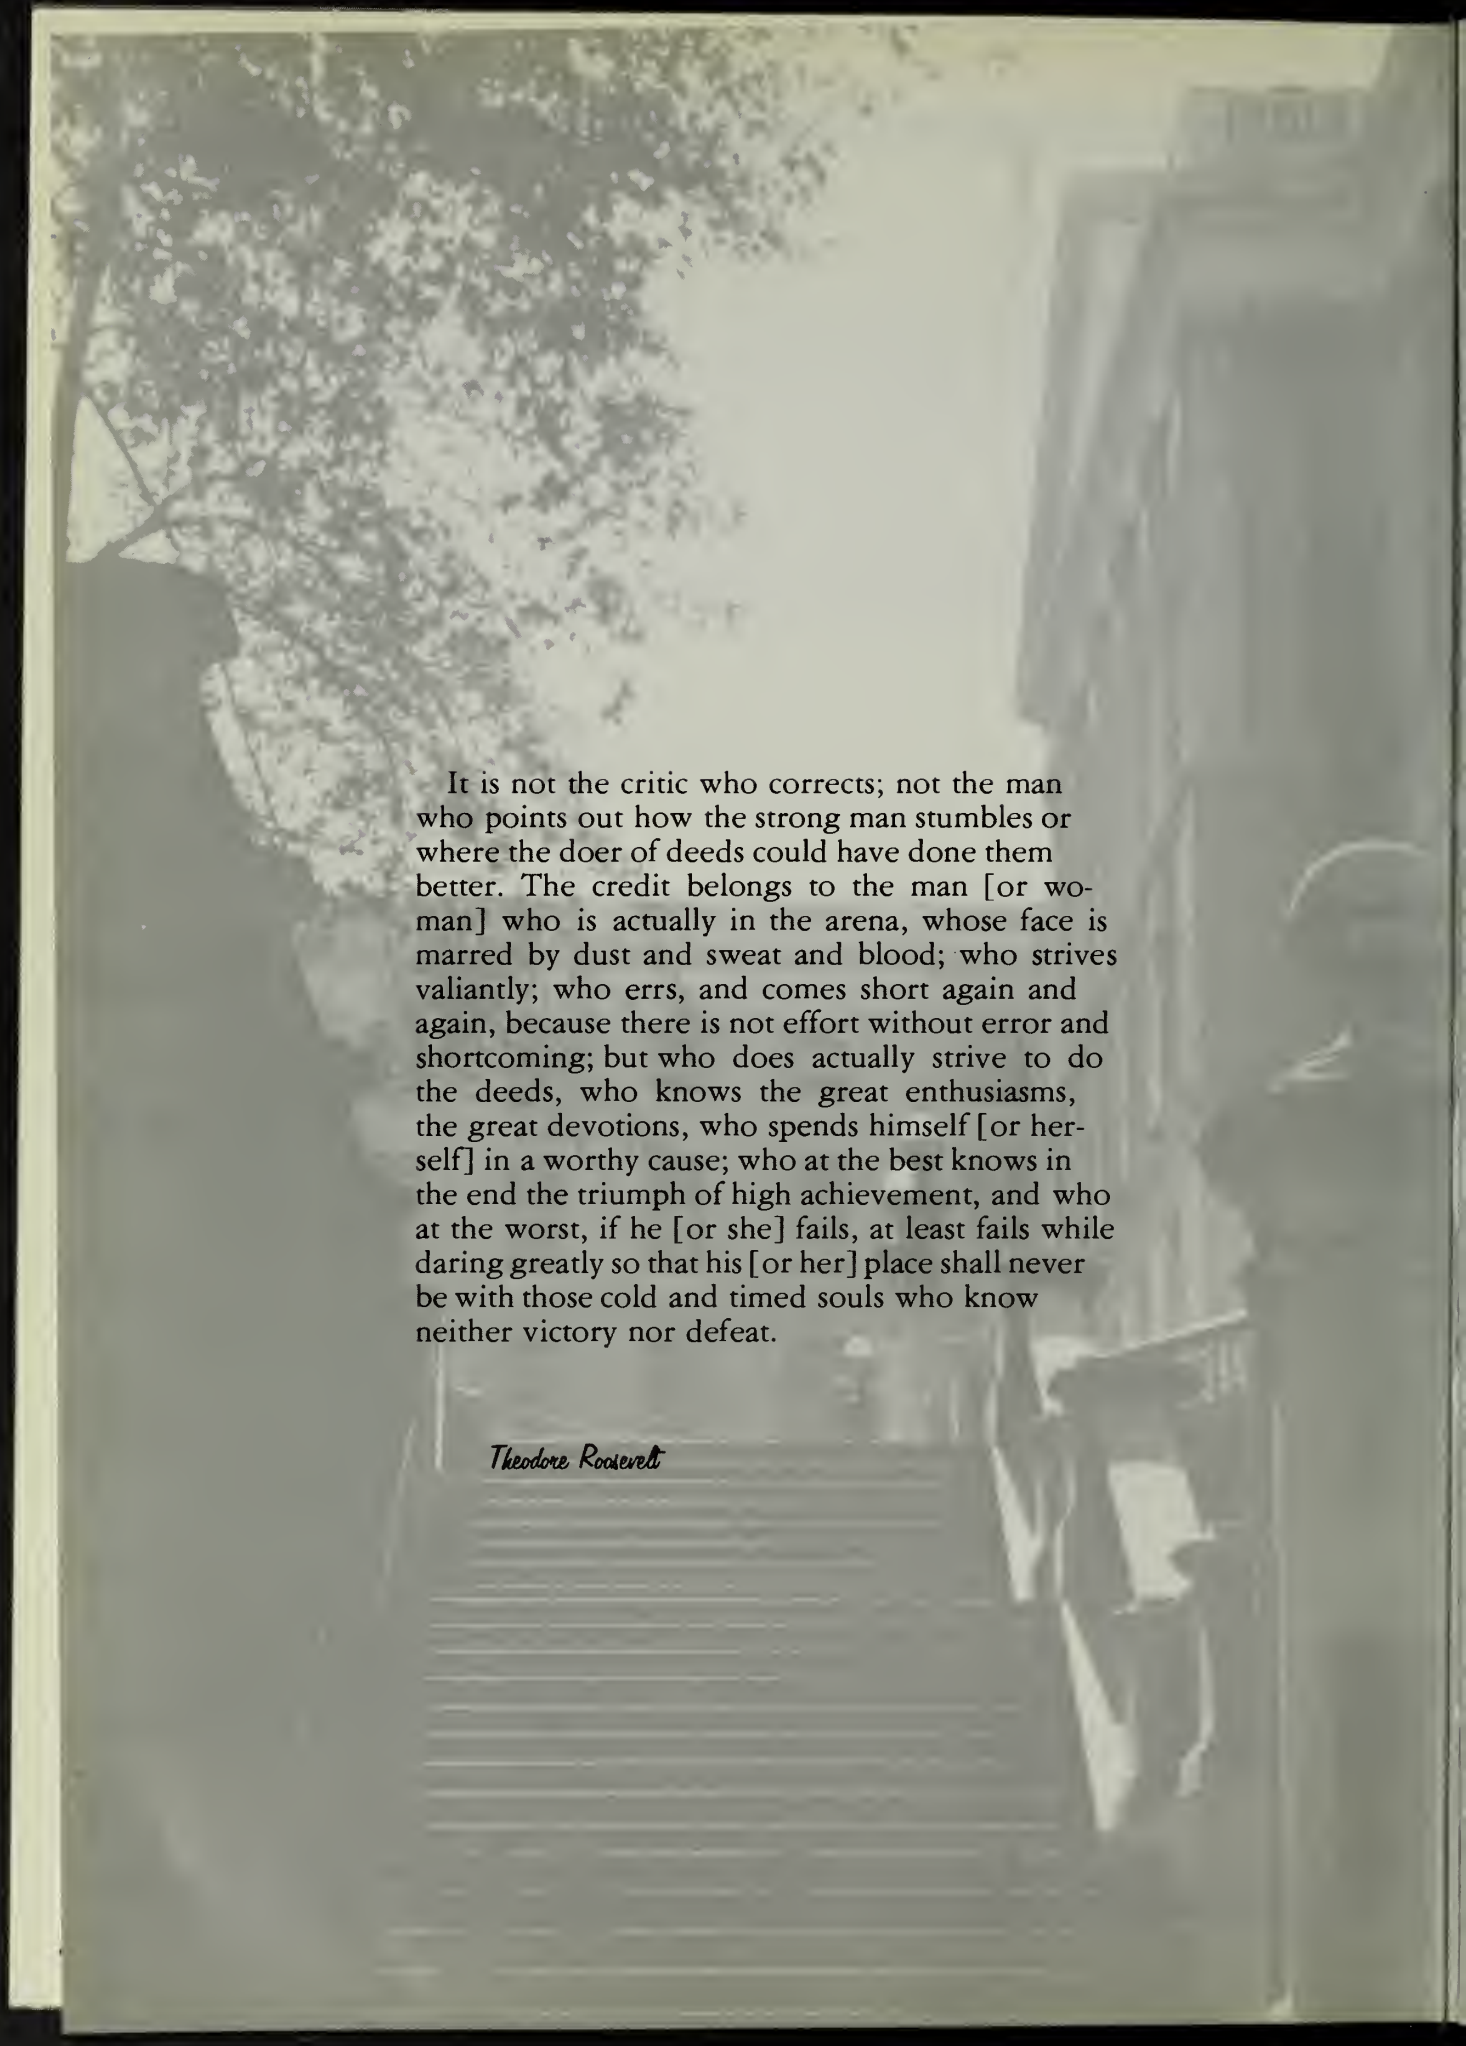
Richard

With Appreciation and Love to our Families.

Thanks for your guidance and support.
Without all of you we could never have made it.

The celebration is as much yours as ours.

Love always,
Tara H. & Robi J.



It is not the critic who corrects; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man [or woman] who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, and comes short again and again, because there is not effort without error and shortcoming; but who does actually strive to do the deeds, who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, who spends himself [or herself] in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he [or she] fails, at least fails while daring greatly so that his [or her] place shall never be with those cold and timed souls who know neither victory nor defeat.

Theodore Roosevelt
